

Descriptive Analysis

Mr. Halmi was very professional during his entire experience. Every lesson plan was outstanding. His plans were presented to me long before they were due. He gathered the materials days before teaching a lesson. I was impressed by how responsible Mr. Halmi was with preparing his lessons.

Mr. Halmi really got to know the students. He incorporated things that the students are interested about in every lesson. He tied in real life situations to make the math skills relevant to the students.

The student were highly motivated because of interesting presentation of each concept. Mr. Halmi used a variety of teaching techniques including: cooperative learning, interactive activities, group projects, and the inquiry method.

Mr. Halmi created visuals that enhanced his lesson by catching the student's interest then providing clear explanations of the concept. He helped the principal with a project for the school's PSSA improvement plan. He will be an asset to the district that hires him.

Using the following point system, assign a grade based on your evaluation as the cooperating teacher.
(150-143=A; 142-135=B+; 134-128=B; 127-120=C+; 119-113=C; 112-105=D)

150 Points = A Grade
