

Accent Quilters invites you to join us in a day of

Quinglish

Hol Ha'moed Succot

On: Tuesday, October 10, 2006, from 10h30 until the last person leaves!

At: 32 Herzl Street, Ra'anana (home of Terry Mowszowski)

Quinglish (Quilting in English) is a fun day of sharing ideas, showing off work, learning new tricks and tips, and meeting fellow quilters, sewers, embroiderers...in fact anybody who's handy with a needle and thread! Bring your favorite sewing work of art: a bed quilt, art quilt, embroidery, "timtex" constructions, fabric portraits – anything goes so long as it's sewing related.

...And bring a friend; perhaps we can interest them in the art of sewing.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

Rivkah Rosenfeld

Mixed Media Doll Artist

Rivkah will demonstrate her craft and show how to make a basic doll ("very, very easy pattern"). All participants at Quinglish will receive a complimentary pattern and online class in doll making.

Originally from Seattle, Rivkah's dolls have been exhibited around Israel and in the US, and appear in "Art Doll Quarterly" and Patti Medaris Culea's book "Creative Cloth Doll Faces"

Visit her web site at: <http://rivkahrosenfeld.googlepages.com/home>

As lunch is being catered, please RSVP* if you are coming

Cost NIS25.00 per person
