PHILMONT TRAINING CENTER

Many of you may have heard of "Philmont", but how many of you know that it is - a working ranch with cattle, buffalo, and horses? - over 200,000 acres of backwoods adventure trails and challenges? - the national training center for the BSA?

If you're interested in doing any BSA job better, check out the courses offered at the PTC on their web site, <http://www.bsa.scouting.org/philmont/ptc/> . While you're taking your course, your spouse & family will be having the time of their lives hiking, camping, horseback riding, doing crafts, etc. It's a GREAT value for any family and EVERYBODY has fun -- spouses and daughters, too -- regardless of age!

Meals & lodging are included, as are the family activities each evening. You & your family will be taken care of by the friendly, experienced PTC staff.

Philmont is located in Cimarron, NM. To attend, you must be a registered Scouter and be "nominated" by the council. Call your Dist. Exec. for more info. Happy trails to you! J. Spahr
