

A House Swept

What is a house?
Is it a structure of wood or stone?

If a storm came,
would it fall?

Or would it stand?

What is a house?
Is it the couch or chair?
Is love there?

What is a house?
Is it the fact that it's well kept?

Is your's swept?

You come out, you go in,
not aware of what you brought in until,
It's too late!

Take a look around and ask yourself,
How's my house?

Is it swept? Or just well kept?
