

AN EMPTY MAN I AM INDEED

Johannes Heune, 1564, sts. 1-3; Martin Moller, 1596, st. 4
tr. Michael R. Totten, 2007

after a prayer by Philipp Melanchthon, 1555
Bowen, Joseph Haydn, b. 1732

1 An emp - ty man I am in - deed, yet Christ has
2 O God the Fa - ther, o'er me reign, and by Your
3 So, when my hour is close at hand, cause me be - 4 Lord Je - sus Christ, raise me on high, Your glo - rious filled my ev - 'ry need. He was made man to Spir - it me sus - tain, and let Your Son, who side Your Christ to stand, for I am His and realm to oc - cu - py, where an - gels lead the

com - fort me; His blood out - poured has set me free.
is my life, re - form my heart and end my strife.
He is mine; I am a branch of Him, the Vine.
saints in praise of count - less gifts through end - less days.