THE BEAT BRIGADE

an independent supporters club for the Atlanta Beat

ABOUT US

We are the Beat Brigade, an independent supporters club of the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA, (Women's United Soccer Association). We are a group of people who transcend borders, generation gaps and beer preferences. However, we share a common passion for the Atlanta Beat, (and a similar level of distaste for the Sandi Ego Spirit).

THE BRIGADE MISSION

Our mission is to support the Atlanta Beat and WUSA both on and off the pitch, by creating awareness for the organization and the league. During the season we will be steadfast, enthusiastic and loud in our support of the Beat team. Creating a fun and energetic atmosphere for all soccer fans. Section 116 at Herndon Stadium (the Beat's home field), is where many of our season-ticket holders are stationed. Several planned road trips for the season are in the works, as we hit the road to cheer on our favorite team. For other televised away games we take over the Jock's N' Jill's on Peachtree St. and 10th in midtown Atlanta.

During the off-season, we continue to rally around the Beat and support them in their grass-root marketing and community efforts. Brigade members are encouraged to participate in Beat events by volunteering their time for such events as player appearances, youth soccer and school events, and game days.

WAR BEAT!

The Atlanta Beat is one of the eight original cities granted a team in the inaugural season of the WUSA. With US National founding players Cindy Parlow, Briana Scurry, and Nikki Serlenga; international stars Sun Wen (China), Charmaine Hooper, Sharolta Nonen (Canada), and Homare Sawa (Japan); rising stars Kylie Bivens and Nancy Augustyniak; and lead by Field General Tom Stone; this team is set to dominate for years to come.

As displayed by their physical and feisty play, the Beat players all share a warrior's take-no-prisoners attitude. Called "thugs" by some, the Beat put it all on the line every time they take the pitch. Thus the Brigade's rallying cry "WAR BEAT!"

WE WANT YOU!

Despite our close-ties to the Beat organization, we are an independent SC and rely upon our members to make it the best supporters club in the WUSA.

Brigade membership is open to all fans of the Atlanta Beat and women's soccer.

Membership dues help subsidize our SC expenses, (banners, flyers, brochures, website, tailgating supplies, etc.).

Membership benefits include:

- Personalized membership card
- Brigade discounts on road trips, merchandise and more
- Private viewing parties and other special events
- Use of grills and coolers at tailgating parties
- Atlanta Beat goodies

If you are interested in joining the Beat Brigade, please fill out the membership form on the backside of this brochure.
