THE JEWISH STUDIES CAREER RESOURCE CENTER IS OPEN

Are you aware of the resource center in Goodbody Hall 325? One corner in this office is devoted solely to resources for undergraduate and graduate students in Jewish Studies. Stop by and look through a variety of information pertaining to internships, jobs, summer opportunities, fellowships, Israel programs, scholarships and grants, and much more. The resource center is continually being updated with new information as the Jewish Studies Program receives it. When you have some free time, take advantage of this resource. You may discover just what you've been looking for!

The Bloomington Jewish Student has published six issues and is now being put out every other week. Issues are available at the Helene G. Simon Hillel center at 730 East Third Street. The BJS is distributed free of charge. The mission statement of the BJS is to cover events of interest to the Jewish community, and to publicize them. By doing so, we hope to encourage more involvement in Jewish organizations and more awareness of Jewish activities among students. Issues may be obtained at Hillel and other places. Issues may also be viewed or printed off at our website.
