

This is a brochure that displays some of my most notable design pieces in college. I tried to display pieces that use a wide variety of color and other design elements to show similarities and differences between designs. I'm excited to continue exploring different techniques and ideas in Graphic Design.

Magazine Design for Star Wars

I've tried to take constructive criticism from my peers and professors to grow and build myself of up as a young designer. I'm eager to explore different types of design in the future to develop a wide variety of skills that can be used in multiple platforms.
