

California College Personnel Association

An Association of Student Affairs Professionals In California

Vision

We are a comprehensive Student Affairs organization that meets the unique and specific needs of higher education professionals in the state of California.

Values

We value learning, collaboration and social justice.

Purpose

We commit ourselves to the purposes as stated in our constitution:

Provide leadership for the state of California

Stimulate creative and experimental initiatives

Promote and disseminate research

Engage multiculturalism and diversity

Firmly believing that diversity enriches the education of us all, CCPA actively seeks diversity in its membership.

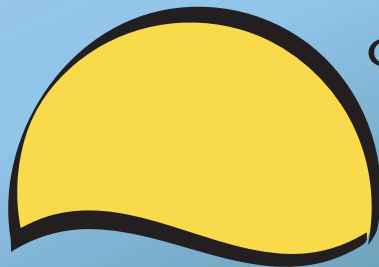

We acknowledge that diversity requires a heightened attentiveness to the way we listen and how we speak to each other.

We promote and encourage the development of multicultural competencies in our membership as well as among students, staff and faculty.

CCPA programs, events, and activities are open to all members.
