

BRAVE HEART

*I was hurt each time
You told me a little lie
I knew it because
I could see through your eyes.
It pained like a stab on my soul
Not because you lied but
Because in your trust
There lies a big hole.
I turned my face away
So you could not see
Deep wounds on my soul
Bleeding through my eyes.
I turned the music high
So you could not hear
My silent cries,
I overlooked because I had to
Expect nothing from you.*

*I felt pretty bad each time
You ignored my calls.
To make your life simple
You used me too
Like so many other people,
May be you were busy but
You did not bother to inform
Yet, I kept hanging on
Because you do not know,
Perhaps, I do
That you need me
More than I need you.
And that it will be
Same in the future too
I too ignored because I had to
Expect nothing from you.*

*Anger surged in my head
Each time I had to wait.
Still, I smiled when you
Turned up pretty late.
You could not guess,
That it was a fake.
Just to enjoy a little high
You make others humiliate.
In those frustrating moments
When like the rest,
I had to wait for you
I didn't complain because I had to
Expect nothing from you.*

*I was there each time
You wanted for your every deed
But, you never answered my calls
In those rainy hours, in my need,
You are an expert in your games
And only God may count on
Your excuses, your claims.
Yet, in every weak moment,
Whenever you were in blue
I shouldered because I had to
Expect nothing from you.*

*Hey, I'm down unto my neck,
Can't take it any more
Its time to say Good-bye
For you are leaving now
And I won't miss you, I'm sure
Having known each other for years
Yet, we are not friends
Won't waste a tear for your tears
When it comes to an end.
I'm Brave Heart because I have to
Expect nothing from you.*
