

I'll be there

*You are the Moon
And I'm the Sun,
We compliment each other
Like no other one.
My heat provides warmth
And my reflection thru' you
Makes it cool & calm.
I brighten up to success
And show the path
Through hard core reality
Sticking to ground
While you lighten up my world
Through the dark
When I'm not around.
When we are together
You shed your agonies, anger,
Fears, frustrations,
And open up your mind
To set free emotions,
Leaving behind all distractions.
It really makes me high
When I look into your eyes
Filled with gratitude and pride
Asking me all the way through
To be your friend,
Philosopher and Guide.
Give me hug every-time
When we meet, when we part
Near, far, may be miles apart,
I'll be always besides you,
You'll be always in my heart.*
