

Needs to be alone....

*Togetherness and loneliness are like
Two sides of the same coin
People come in life for times; sometimes
And go away leaving behind
Their emptiness and loneliness
Do not miss the other side
Before it is too late
Rest, it is your life again.*

*Togetherness is a gift of companionship
And that's what most of us desire and need
But too much of it too makes us tire.
It is good sometimes for the people
To leave them alone, on their own
Because there are struggles within
Which only they can fight & win!*
