

*A deep-set desire
For an everlasting relationship
In search of a companion
Together we could conquer
Fire burning within
Share sorrows & laughers,
Cooling aggression,
Satisfying fantasies,
Fulfilling desires & expectations,
Yet, not loosing our individuality.
May not be possessing
But knowing, understanding
Each other whole,
Beyond barriers to merge
Our minds, bodies & souls.*

*You came on my way
When the time was right
Lifted curtain of darkness,
Made the candle glow
We came a long way
Till, you said no.
I wasn't surprised
Probably it was time to realize
That I was wrong and,
You're not the chosen one
For whom I've waited
All those years along
Or, may be you need
More time to wait
Till your confidence wins
Your trust, - my faith.*

QUEST

*I believe when you say
Forever, we are friends.
To me, still, search is on
Deep inside no emotional tides,
But surging unrest
For it's not the end
It's the beginning of my Quest,
It's the beginning of my Quest..*
