

Welcome to Richland One YourSpace!

Richland School District One employs a variety of people in all sorts of careers, and these personnel play an important role in our district. The Richland One Intranet provides our employees with access to information about a variety of available services.

Featured Items

Principal Wins Carolina Careers Governor's Award

Nathan White, principal of the Olympia Learning Center, was awarded the prestigious Carolina Careers Governor's Award as a 2008 Educational Champion of the Year. This award recognizes South Carolina educators who develop innovative and challenging programs to prevent or reduce the number of students dropping out of high school. White was recognized for successfully implementing Olympia's Star Academy, a model program which helps at-risk students stay in school and graduate.

Nathan White

The Star Academy Program, as well as other Olympia programs, will be prominently featured at the National Alliance of Black School Educators Conference in Atlanta November 18-23.

Lower Richland's Twanda Addison Named SCACTE Teacher Of The Year

Lower Richland High School teacher Twanda Addison has been named the 2008-09 South Carolina Association of Career and Technical Education (SCACTE) Teacher of the Year. Addison teaches health science, pharmacy technology and medical terminology at LR. She qualified for the award when she was named the 2008-09 SC Health Science Technology Educators (a division of SCACTE) Teacher of the Year in January and will compete for national teacher of the year honors later this year.

Twanda Addison

Employee Video Profile

2008 Classified Employee of the Year Finalist Anna Taylor

Latest News

Retirement Meetings Set

The South Carolina Retirement Systems has announced a series of regional seminars designed to prepare employees for retirement.

The meetings are a full day, beginning with registration at 8:30 a.m. and concluding by 4 p.m. The Columbia meetings will be held in the Department of Health and Environmental Control's Peoples Auditorium on November 4, November 5, December 3 and December 4. For more information, call Duane Brennan at 231-7448.