

Chatchai Panananon

Faculty of Social Science, Srinakharinwirot University
Sukhumvit 23, Wattana District, Bangkok 10110, Thailand

Phones: 661-424-2257; 662-915-6356

E-mails: chatchai@swu.ac.th; chatchai@fulbrightweb.org

Experience

Fulbright Scholar-in-Resident

North Central College, Naperville, Illinois, USA

2003-2004

- Taught Southeast Asian History and co-taught Freshman Writing.
- Gave talks at various institutions and organizations: Center for Southeast Asian Studies, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Rend Lake College, Ina High School, The Rotary Club of Naperville, a local church, and visited business classes.
- Presented the Fulbright Lecture on “An Overview of US-Thai Relations” at North Central College.
- Compiled a comprehensive list of Southeast Asian books for the Oesterly Library on its Southeast Asian books acquisitions project.
- Assisted North Central College on its Southeast Asian Festival.

Associate Professor

Srinakharinwirot University, Bangkok, Thailand

1982-present

- Chair, History Department. Responsible for all administrative duties of the Department (including human resources, academic affairs, budgeting, and public relations); Supervised 16 faculty members and 230 undergraduate and graduate students; supervised the revisions of the department’s curricula, and liaised with inside and outside organizations.
- Taught Principles of Business, Academic Information for Guides, Community Based Ecotourism Management, Freshman English, Economic History of Thailand, Human Resource Development and Management, Research in History, Asian Civilization, Western Civilization, Southeast Asian Historiography, Seminar in the Vietnam War, and Readings in Southeast Asian History.
- Chair, Graduate Program in History.
- Chair, Curriculum Revision Committees. Supervised the revisions of both undergraduate and graduate curricula of the History Department.
- Member of the History Curricula Committee, Ministry of University Affairs, Thailand.
- Assistant Vice-President for International Affairs at SWU for 2 years. We were able to cultivate good relationships and establish exchange programs with many foreign universities.
- Academic advisor. Advised graduate students in the History Department. Supervised more than 10 graduate theses.

Overseas Stringer

SBS Radio, Melbourne, Australia

2000-2001

- Produced and reported weekly news on Thailand.

Media ConsultantAustralian Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand 1991-1997

- Produced 4 weekly radio programs broadcast by 52 radio stations throughout the country.
- Advised the Public Affairs Section on copies of the "Inventive Australia" campaign and the recruitments of its media officers.

Station Supervisor/Program ProducerManager Radio, FM 97.5, Bangkok, Thailand 1994-1996

- Was the station supervisor of Manager Radio Station on Sundays.
- Produced and co-anchored 3 programs: Windows on the World, Weekly News Summary, and Forward Looking.

Visiting ProfessorOregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon, USA 1990, 1991

- Drafted a Cooperation Proposal between OSU and SWU.
- Taught Southeast Asian History and Symposium on the Vietnam War.

Program Producer and BroadcasterBritish Broadcasting Corporation, London, United Kingdom 1987

- Trained in radio techniques and program production.
- Was a radio program producer and broadcaster. Produced and broadcast radio programs for the BBC Thai Service Division.

Graduate Teaching Assistant (Full-time appointment)University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA. 1981-1982

- Taught Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Thai for the Center for Southeast Asian Studies, University of Michigan.
- Conducted research on American Protestant Missionaries in Southeast Asia for the Luce Foundation. Contributed 3 research reports.

EducationPh.D. (GPA 6.872). University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USAMBA (GPA 3.82). Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois, USA
Honor Societies: Sigma Iota Epsilon and Phi Beta DeltaB.Ed. (Hons), M.Ed. (GPA 3.67). Srinakharinwirot University, Bangkok, ThailandBroadcasting Certificates

- Radio Announcer Certificate
- Radio Program Producer Certificate

Both are professional certificates awarded by the Radio and Television Administration Commission, Department of Information, Thailand.
