

Lord, for Thy tender mercie's sake

Richard Farrant
(1530-1580)

1

Lord, for thy ten - der mer - cy's sake, lay

7

our sins to our not our sins to our charge, But for - give that is 13

past, and give us grace to a - mend our sin - ful lives,

19

to de - cline from sin and in - cline to vir - tue,
that we may

1

S that we may walk with a per - fect

A that we may walk with a per - fect heart,

T walk with a per - fect heart, a per - fect heart' that

B walk with a per - fect heart, with a per - fect heart, that

6

s heart, ——— that we may walk with a per - fect heart, be - a that we may walk with a per - fect heart be - t we may walk with a per - fect heart, with a per - fect heart be -

b we may walk with a per - fect heart, with a per - fect heart be -

12

s fore thee now and e - ver - more; 1st ending 2nd ending more.

a fore thee now and e - ver - more; 1st ending 2nd ending more.

t fore thee now and e - ver more; that more.

b fore thee now and e - ver more; that more.