Mrs. Ruth Harrington Herzing,
Hacienda del Chorrillo,
Taxco, Gro, Mexico.

Dear Ruth:

Since I seldom hear from any of the Harrington branch of the family, I certainly appreciate and welcome your letter. I do hear, occasionally, from Georgia Harrington and Frances Harrington, and her daughter. Since all the Harrington men have passed away, it seems I am the last survivor of that generation.

I have a vivid recollection of you as an infant, because your father, Fay, and your mother Ada visited Margaret and myself a short time, on their way to Chautauqua. Needless to say I am in the old-age class, but still practicing law, in a limited sense.

Very much pleased to learn that your son, Phillip, has completed his law course in the Ohio State University; presume he intends to practice law in the State of Ohio, and I sure wish him success. No doubt, he will observe my name, as one of the older lawyers, in the Legal Journal, and, perhaps I may have occasion to meet him. Am sorry I did not meet you and your husband at Chautauqua.

Your cousin Margaret often mentioned you and your husband and was very much pleased to meet you; However, my wife passed away shortly afterwards, which has left me very lonely.

We are having real winter weather again, this morning about six inches of snow.

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me, and with kindest regards to yourself, your husband, and Phillip, I am

Yours sincerely,

Charles E. Harrington

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Herzing,
Hacienda del Charrillo,
Apartado 24,
Taxco gra, Mexico.

My Dear Folks:

Received your Christmas Greetings and also the very informative and interesting letter accompanying same; and it is especially pleasing to me to be remembered by some of the Harrington family. I am, somewhat, in touch with Georgia Harrington, and the John Harrington family, otherwise, the Harrington family is not very communicative. Accept my congratulations on your son, Philip, passing his bar examinations with honor, and I know what it means, because, for many years, I have been the head of our local examining board, and the present State Board of Law Examiners in both Pennsylvania and Ohio do not pass a candidate unless he is well qualified.

I am the son of Alonzo Harrington, born and raised in Parker, Pennsylvania, and my sister, Frances Monroe, is still living there, in our old homestead. It is rather unfortunate that George Harrington, the son of Henry Harrington, who died some years ago, resident of Austin, Texas, did not contact you by presenting you with the Coat of Arms of the Harrington family, he also prepared the genealogy of the Harrington family, which is quite interesting. His wife, and surviving children, I presume are still living at Austin, Texas. His wife's name is Zula, and I know, as a fact, that she is not very much interested in the Harrington family, otherwise she might be able to furnish you with the Harrington Coat of Arms and the history of the Harrington family.

I am still practicing law, in my old age, and, considering, am enjoying fairly good health. Have written a congratulatory letter to your son, wishing him every success in his choice of profession.

I will be very glad to hear from you at any time, and extending to you both a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Harrington
