

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

RITA DAVIS

"October 23, after the game," was my most thrilling moment, related Rita Davis, our blue eyed, blond haired, featured senior personality this week.

It really took some doing to get Rita to tell our reporter about her most embarrassing moment, which was, "getting stuck in the mud with a boy." "My most unusual experience happened at a pajama party, October 10, 1959," stated Rita.

"One who is a lot of fun," is her idea of a date. When asked for additional personal details she stated, "Can't wait until one hour after graduation, what a blast."

"My Aunt May is the most unforgettable person I know!" confessed Rita.

She likes: red, Klub, (a Norwegian dish), "White Orchid", Mr. Appleby, Pat, Marti, Office, basketball, volleyball, Debbie Reynolds, Rock Hudson, going to Pat's, and driving Ron's car. Rita's pet peeve is people who are stuck up or bossy.

Rita was born August 20, 1942, in West Rainier. She now stands 5 feet $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches tall and has twelve brothers! (W.O.W.)

Future plans for her include finding work after graduation.

BOB EVERETT

Bob Everett plans to travel after graduation, he told this reporter in a recent interview.

Bob is kept busy around school with many activities, such as vice-president of the Thespians, secretary of the lettermen club, Honor Society, and flirting.

His idea of a date is a girl. Bob stated, "When the doctor hit me," was his most thrilling moment. When asked about his most embarrassing moment, Bob came out with, "Ha, ha." He did tell us his most unusual moment, he related, "An appendectomy."

He likes: blue, anything, but avocados, "The Enchanted Sea," Mrs. Ingold, Bob J., Tom, H.E., Joyce, French, Art, football, science fiction, and Linda's parties. (Hmmm...)

Mr. Deane Tack is the most unforgettable person Bob has ever met.

Bob has two brothers and four sisters. He was born in "Maryville, Tennessee, December 31, 1959," (like he's not all here yet??). He now stands five feet seven inches tall with brown hair and greenish-blueish-gray eyes, "varies with my disposition," stated Bob.

He dislikes: dumb teachers and The Columbian.

HEARD THE WORD

Here I am again with the latest new ways to say it. A cube-a guy or gal who is square anyway you look at him.

Octopus-a guy who is fresh on dates.

The Ends-your shoes.

In Orbit-a guy, a gal, or star whom you dig the most. I'm no camel-simply means get off my back.

Monster-the telephone (Probably originated with an irate parent).

Slurg-an ice cream milk shake.

Let's go twins-let's double date.

Tickle an egg-when you're ordering an egg cream in Brooklyn.

She's got the Joes-to describe a girl who is blue over losing her boy friend. He stabbed her-he gave her his fraternity pin.

A calf-one who is too young to go steady.

I've Got the Zorrors-I can't sit still; I'm restless.

She's fizzling-she's acting silly.

Don't bug me-or you're like that fly buzzing around my ear.

Doughnuts-45-RPM records.

A Kitten-a gal who's got everything. They're turning at thirty-three to describe a boy and girl who are now LP.

That's Jarvis-that's okay. Garbage-costume jewelry.

That's all for now, see you again sometime soon.
