

Colleen Danner

From: Rebecca Cacayuran [cacayuran@evcommfdn.org]
Sent: Monday, December 03, 2007 3:26 PM
To: Colleen Danner
Subject: Ideas

So, I'm literally cutting and pasting from a little running list I had—so I'm sure it isn't covering multiple $$ amount ranges. But, I figure, better to send this than not at all:

Me ideas:

Door mat: <http://www.uncommongoods.com/item/item.jsp?itemId=13069>

Purse: <http://www.backcountryoutlet.com/outlet/OTE0028/Of-the-Earth-Street-Purse-Womens.html?id=Nq6SdLdN>

Registry

www.tupperware.com (registry is a little funky... but I need containers suitable for the pantry—for brown sugar, rice, pasta, crackers, pretzels, etc...)
www.crateandbarrel.com

Chicago Tribune subscription: Second City Saver
<https://subscribe.chicagotribune.com/giftsubscription.htm>

Bag:

<http://store.heavensgatehomeandgarden.com/bentlybag.html>

Christmas music:

Books:

50 ways to improve Women's lives: <http://store.feminist.org/index.asp?PageAction=VIEWPROD&ProdID=42>

Economist subscription: <https://www.economistsubscriptions.com/ecom908/global/>

CD's: Women of Africa, Ani's Canon <http://store.feminist.org/index.asp?PageAction=VIEWCATS&Category=6>

I always include a donation to one of my orgs...

How are you? love!!

Rebecca M. Cacayuran
 Assistant Director of Development
Evanston Community Foundation
 1007 Church Street, #108, Evanston, IL 60201
 847.492.0990 phone; 847.492.9230 direct dial
www.evanstonforever.org

for good. forever. for evanston.

Confirmed in Compliance with National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations

please consider the environment before printing this e-mail