

We wish to thank the following for contributing door prizes for our Adams County Backyard Conservation Conference – 2005

BEDFORD

Rainbow Iris Garden - $25 gift certificate

CORNING

Quality Power & Turf – trimmer string
The Gift Box – wind whirly chime
Something Special – photo mats
Hy-Vee - $25 gift certificate
McMahon Drug – 3 stepping stones
Gadberry True Value – hand sprayer
Wildflowers – fresh flower arrangement
Adams County Extension Service – Perennials for the Shade book
Lisa Allison, Home Interiors Consultant –
Uncle Sam tin lantern
Corning High School Horticulture Classes–Plants
Fudge Town Interiors – basket with lid

CRESTON

The Wishing Well – wooden plague
Rod’s Hallmark Store – 6 photo albums
Earl May Nursery & Garden Center - plant food
Walmart – canvas chair, shower set

DES MOINES

Garden Gate Magazine – subscription
Courage to Create – tote bag, shirt, scarf

GRISWOLD

Canoyer Country Greenhouse-$25 gift certificate

LENOX

Bunch Hardware – garden ornament
My Sister’s Place – garden decoration
This and That – novelty wood craft
The Willow Lady – gourd/iris leaf basket

RED OAK

Hy-Vee - $25 gift certificate
Red Oak True Value – 2 pr leather gloves
Red Oak Floral & Gift – bouquet & $5 gift certificate

SHARPSBURG

Mainz Haus – wood trellis

VILLISCA

Olson/Linn Museum – birdhouse
The Greenery - $20 gift certificate

GOWER, MISSOURI

Comanche Acres Iris & Water Gardens - $25 gift certificate for iris

Other contributions we appreciate:

Adams County Pheasant’s Forever Chapter - $100 for wood for wren houses

Earl May Nursery & Garden Center in Creston – bulbs and flower seeds for favors

Plus a special thanks to all of our wonderful presenters and volunteers who made this conference possible.

Thanks to Kent Abbott for his superb job of recording the event for video and audio webcasting.

+++++