2. Our hopes on star - ry pin - ions rise, High as - pi - ra - tion thrills our soul,
 3. Like an - gels from the realms un - seen, Light - wing'd the mo - ments come and go,
 4. We tread the vale of time and sense, A - mid its phan - tom - fleet - ing dreams,
 5. The ten - der chords of pur - est love, With peace en - twined, shall strong - er grow!

Now swell - ing in har - mo - nious chime, Sweet notes in mea - sured num - bers flow.

A no - bler life to re - al - ize, As - cend - ing to per - fec - tion's goal.
 The shin - ing links of life, be - tween E - the - re - al spheres and earth be - low;
 Still long - ing, with a hope in - tense, For some - thing that en - dur - ing seems;
 We'll bear the spir - it of the dove, And kind - ness to the err - ing show;

With joy we catch the glad - some strain, Which fills our hearts with lov - ing cheer.

The past with joy and sor - row fraught, Shall from our vi - sion dis - ap - pear;
 They bear a re - cord of the deeds That cloud, or make our path - way clear:
 Yet du - ty's path we will pur - sue, With - out a doubt or cring - ing fear;
 With gen - tle words, and Christ - like deeds, A mon - u - ment of good we'll rear,

And, ech - o - ing back a full re - frain, Give wel - come to the Glad New Year!

The pres - ent claims our ear - nest thought; All hail the bright, the Glad New Year!
 Broad - cast they sow time's pre - cious seeds, And ush - er in the Glad New Year!
 With loft - y aim and pur - pose true, We'll toll through - out the Glad New Year!
 While bliss, that fills our spir - it needs, A - waits us in the Glad New Year!
