Co-chair: Hyun Park (301)-983-0156

Date: March 20, 2005

Deadline: February 5, 2005

Location: University of Maryland College Park, Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center

Fee: $4.00 per participant per ensemble event. Photocopy one form for each entry. Send all forms and one check payable to MSMTA to:

Katherine Williams
26108 Cornor Drive
Damascus, MD 20872-1202

Eligibility: Students through 12th grade, age 7 and above as of the date of event.

Events: Duets, Duos, Trios and Quartets for piano. Placement of entry will be determined by the average age of the team. Students will compete by age levels only. A team may compete only once in the same event (duet, trio, etc.) but may enter more than one event. A student may play with different partners in the same event and in other events, not to exceed three (3).

Time Limits:

Age 7- 9:	4 minutes
Age 10-12:	6 minutes
Age 13-15:	8 minutes
Age 16-18:	10 minutes

Rules:

1. Only one composition per team may be entered in an event. One composition is defined as from the opening signature to the double bar at the end.
2. Only one movement of a sonatina, suite, etc. will be accepted. Entries not conforming to this rule will be returned.
3. Original compositions, arrangements and transcriptions of entire composition may be used by performers and presented to the judges.
4. A photocopied individual page may be used to facilitate page turns. Photocopies of entire compositions may not be used by performers or presented to the judges. Please bring a second original score for the judge if at all possible. A student will not be disqualified if it is impossible to present a second original score.
5. Music need not be memorized.
6. Concertos may not be used for the Duo category.

--The general rules governing MSMTA events also apply. Please read them carefully--
