

Family Contract – CYT 2008-2009

We, the undersigned, contract with the tutors in whose classes our children are enrolled and with the parents who have organized these classes to fulfill the obligations outlined in the handbook. We understand that our financial contract is for the entire year and that there can be no refunded tuition or fees as long as the classes continue as they have been presented [substitutes may be used if the need arises].

We will contribute actively to the success of these classes. We commit to resolve any difficulties that arise by going directly to those involved. We will not encourage gossip or criticism. We will respond quickly to requests from tutors or staff.

We will not share the names and phone numbers of anyone in the group without the specific permission of that person.

We accept the authority of the CYT leadership in the selection of the tutors, substitutes, and curriculum for each class. CYT will strive to provide the most qualified tutors and substitutes possible. Non-attendance of classes for reasons of these selections are subject to student dismissal.

We agree to contribute actively to the success of the CYT tutorial and the well being of the entire group. We commit to resolve any difficulties that may arise by following the parental guidelines as stated in the handbook.

We understand that once I have committed to these classes with checks written to the tutors, the money is nonrefundable. I will not contact any tutors asking for tuition to be refunded.
