

June 3, 1998

I contacted Mrs. John Plath Green on April 9, 1998, seeking her permission to reproduce her late husband's 1956 compilation, Henry Cabaniss and His Descendants. Mrs. Green granted me permission and provided a little insight as to why the book is so difficult to locate. Only 200 copies were printed; two separate printings of 100 copies each. A few copies (maybe five) went to libraries; the remainder were sold or lost when her home was flooded

I am truly thankful for Mrs. Green's permission to reproduce this book. I doubt that the reproduction of this book will make a great many people happy, but I believe it will make a very small number of people very, very happy.

A special thank you also goes to Susan Cabaniss Bradford. It was Susan that stood in front of a copy machine making me a copy of her book from which I worked. Thank you, Susan.

My original plan for this project was to duplicate the text as written, correcting any errors detected. As the project progressed, I began correcting the obvious typos and inconsistencies, but the more I "fixed" things, the more I began to question my plan. Ultimately, I decided to duplicate the text as found in the original, errors and all. After all, just who am I to decide if something is right or wrong, especially since I didn't write it and the author is not around to guide me? What appears in error to me may not appear incorrect to you, or it may indeed appear incorrect to both of us, but my choice of a correction may differ from your choice. So, I decided to leave things unchanged and not muddy the water, allowing you to make your own decisions.

Accordingly, the reader is cautioned on several points as follows:

Obvious punctuation and typographical errors have been left as I found them; missing periods, unmatched parentheses and quotation marks are just as they are in the original. Apparent typos were not changed. For example, on page 51 where the descendants of Henry Clay Cabaniss (accdd-g) and wife Cora Ratcliff are listed, one child is detailed as "son of Henry Clay Cabaniss (accdd-g) and Cora Tarcliff." The reader will notice other such typographical errors.)

Some confusing coding of descendants exists, e.g., follow the coding of Permelia Cabaniss (accdf-e, page 41) and her descendants through several generations. Other examples are there to cite, but this one illustrates my point quite well.

There are some apparent inconsistencies found in the book. For example, the place names Indianhoma and Indiahoma are used in the book, but I'm not sure if they are intended to be the same place. If they are indeed the same place, I have no idea which one is the proper spelling.

Also, Green explains in the introductory section, "Key to Index System," that a family's children are assigned a letter in the order of birth. Well, not always. See page 11 where abd Mary Cabaniss (b. ca. 1748) is listed before abe John Cabaniss (b. ca. 1742).

The act of reproducing the book may introduce errors that result from my proof reading's failure to catch the optical character recognition software's inability to properly interpret the scanned text. While I've made every effort to catch these errors, I'm human and know that I make mistakes.

If text in the original was underscored, I made it bold font face unless it was text that should be italicized (name of a book, etc.)

Page numbering...the original work contains no page numbers, but I have numbered these pages to make working with the book a little easier.

Originally, I planned to provide an index to include descendants of the immigrant Cabaniss, as well as those marrying them. While I may prepare an index in the future, readers can use Acrobat's find function to search for names.

Despite the cautions enumerated above, John Plath Green's Henry Cabaniss and His Descendants is a valuable aid to any one working on the Cabaniss genealogy. Although the book is intended primarily to be a record of the descendants of George Cabaniss (accd), the book, when used in conjunction with Allen Cabaniss' Cabaniss Through Four Generations: Some Descendants of Matthew and George, provides the user with a solid base on which to begin work on the Cabaniss genealogy.

If the reader questions whether an item is "as published" in the book or simply the result of my failure, please contact me.

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed biography of descendants of Henry Cabaniss, the Huguenot who fled France in the Seventeenth Century, is based on information obtained from court records in Virginia, from extracts from The Virginia Gazette, Bible records, newspaper clippings and personal memory of descendants now living.

It is intended primarily to be a record of the descendants of George Cabaniss (accd) who migrated to Shelby, North Carolina, about 1806, the descendants of whom meet annually in Shelby for their family reunion.

It is the prayer of the compiler of this information that other members of the family whose names are omitted—and who are descendants of the original Henry Cabaniss—will furnish information in order that a later publication will minimize these omissions.

The guide to the letter-system is explained in a separate portion hereof. It is felt that the guide will afford a ready reference from generation to generation and at the same time will permit the inclusion of additional biographies as they are obtained.

If any of the information contained herein is found to be incorrect, the compiler would be grateful for such information.

KEY TO INDEX SYSTEM

Individual families have been emphasized in the preparation of this record. For the convenience of the reader, the name of each direct ancestor is placed at the beginning of each family record.

The indexing system is quite simple once it is understood. Each member of the family is given a letter of the alphabet beginning with (a) in the order of birth so far as we have been able to ascertain.

The letter (a) has been assigned to Henry Cabaniss, the original immigrant. His name, therefore, is written:

Henry Cabaniss (a)

Henry Cabaniss (a) had three children. We list them in the order which they appear in his Will. The first child is Henry. For his identification, he carries his father's letter (a). As he is apparently the first born in the family, he also is assigned the letter a, hence, his identification symbol is: (aa).

Matthew Cabaniss was the second child mentioned in Henry Cabaniss' (a) Will. His code identification is: (ab).

George Cabaniss was the third and last child mentioned in the Will of Henry Cabaniss (a). His code identification is: (ac).

It may be seen at a glance, therefore, that Henry (aa), Matthew (ab), and George (ac) belong to the second generation of the Cabaniss family in America, as each has two letters in his code.

George Cabaniss (ac) named four children in his Will. These we have referred to by name and code as follows:

Mary Ann Cabaniss (aca)

Sarah Cabaniss (acb)

George Cabaniss (acc)

Jemimah Cabaniss (acd)

A glance at the name George Cabaniss (acc) in the index will indicate to the searcher that his biography should be searched for in the third generation.

Unless a mistake has been made, no two persons should have the same code number.

The code number permits a searcher to trace the ancestry of the holder.

The code further affords a ready method of determining kinship; for instance, in the eighth generation, we find the following two persons:

Mary Gordon Elliott (accdc-dfg)
Robert Smith Rudasill (accdf-gia)

It appears, therefore, that the first common ancestor is George Cabaniss (accd). By counting generations back to the common ancestor, we determine that both persons are members of the fifth generation, inclusive, from the common ancestor. The first generation is the common ancestor himself, and the second generation comprises his children who are brothers and sisters. Therefore, the two persons named above appear as third cousins. A rapid method of calculation is to count back, inclusive, to the common ancestor and subtract two.

Sometimes the generations are staggered, such as:

George Turner Cabaniss (accdf-gag)
Allen Hugh Cabaniss (accdf-beba)

The first is a member of the eighth generation, and the second is a member of the ninth generation. We start with the eighth generation and count back four to the common ancestor. When we subtract two, we discover that the two persons are second cousins. But one of them is a member of the ninth generation. To indicate their relationship properly, therefore, the term once removed is used. This means that the two above persons are second cousins once removed. In the event that the second person was a member of the tenth generation, such member of the tenth generation and the above member of the eighth generation would be second cousins twice removed.

The pages of this record are not numbered, as the use of the code index number makes the numbering of the pages unnecessary.

First Generation of the
Cabaniss Family in America

Henry Cabaniss left London, England, in 1700 aboard the good ship Mary and Ann bound for the mouth of the James River in Virginia in a party of 205 persons, men, women and children, in search of religious freedom and political sanctuary in the new world. He had with him at that time his wife and one child of tender years named Henry. The Marquess de La Muce, Sir Oliver of Nantes, France, was in charge of the party assisted by Monsieur Charles de Saily. The party arrived at the mouth of the James River on July 23, 1700, after a thirteen weeks passage. Attempts have been made to locate a description of the ship which brought the group to Virginia but as yet all attempts have been unsuccessful. Considering the size of the party and having in mind the fact that only one-fourth of the ship was reserved for passengers, it would be safe to assume that the ship was a large one probably three or four masts.

The Cabaniss family originated in France. Shortly after the revocation of the edict of Nantes in 1685, the family was forced to flee to Switzerland, where a large canton of french refugees collected in what is commonly known as a french canton of Switzerland.

Henry shortly thereafter made his way to Rotterdam, Holland, in company with seventy-four other refugees. There the Marquess de La Muce paid his passage and expenses from Switzerland to Rotterdam and from there to London, England.

The following extract is taken from a report that Governor Francis Nicholson of Virginia made to the British Lords of Trade on August 12, 1700. It is set out herein as the facts are fascinating:

“The 24th of the last month, I had the good fortune of receiving his Ma’y’s Royal Commands of March ye 18th, 1699, sent me by your Lord’p, concerning the 1700 Marquis de la Muce, Mons’r de Saily, and other French Protestant Refugees; and I beg to leave to assure yo’r Lord’p, that as I have, so I will endeavor to obey them (they were on board the ship Mary and Ann, of London, George Hawes, Commander, who had about 13 weeks passage, and the 23<sup>d</sup> of the last month arrived at the mouth of this river), and upon receipt of them, I immediately went down to Kickotan, to give directions in order to their coming hither, some of wh. came on Sunday in the evening, the rest the next day. I wrote to Colo. Byrd and Colo. Harrison to meet them here, w<sup>ch</sup> they did, and we concluded that there was no settling them in Norfolk nor thereabouts, because esteemed an unhealthful place, and no vacant land, except some that is in dispute now betwixt us and No. Carolina; So we thought it would be best for them to go to a place twenty miles above the falls of James River, commonly called the Manikin Town. There is a great deal of good land and unpatented, where they may at present be all together, w<sup>ch</sup> we thought would be best for his Ma'ty's Service and Interests, and that they would quickly make a settlement, not only for themselves, but to receive others when his majesty shall be graciously pleased to send them. They may be prejudicial to his Ma'ty's interest and Service, vist., by living long together, and using their own language and customs, and by going upon such manufacturers, and handicraft Trades as we are furnished with from England; but according to duty, I shall endeavor to regulate they affairs, and when, please God, the Council meets, I shall lay before them the matters relating to these Refugees. On Tuesday I mustered them, and No. 1 is a copy of the list of them. Colo. Byrd went before them in order to meet them at the Falls of this river, where he formerly lived, to dispose of them thereabouts, till they can gett houses or sheds in the place for their Reception, and he promised to go along with the Marquis & Mons'r de Saily to show them the Land. The people at present seem to be well effected towards them, and to commiserate their condition, and some who have seen them have given them money, viz: Colo. Harrison, 5£; Mr. Commissary Blair, the like sum. The Reverend Mr. Stephen Touaie, thereabouts; Mr. Benjamin Harrison, 5£; Mr. Attorney General Fowler, something as likewise; Mr.

William Edwards, Merchant of this place. I am apt to think that Several Gentlemen and others will be charitable to them. They went from hence yesterday.

“If his majesty be graciously pleased to send over more, I humbly propose that Mr. Micajah Perry, merchant of London, may be spoken with about their passage hither and that they may have their passage on board the Ships which come to the upper parts of James River, w’ch is the nighest place to their settlement, and that there may not above 40 or 50 come in any one ship; so they may be better accommodated in all respects, for I have observed that when the ships that come into these parts are crowded with people, ’tis very prejudicial to their health; some getting sicknesses, w’ch not seldom prove catching, some dy on board, and others soon after they come on shore.”

F. Frs. Nicholson

(Endorsement). “The Gov’r of Virginia
2 Aug., 1700
R 21 Octob.
Accounts of proceedings there, etc.”

The refugees were transported to the site of the deserted village of the Monacan Indians. This tribe of Indians was the same to which the family of Pocahontas belonged. The earliest reports state that the first ship (of which Henry Cabaniss was a member) were settled between the Monacan and Powick Creeks which ran into the James River above the falls. The settlers arrived too late to make any crops for their winter provisions. As a consequence their conditions were very poor. A large percentage of them died during that first fall and winter and the remainder suffered for lack of bed clothing and food. Many complaints were made by the leaders of the James River settlement to his Majesty the King outlining in detail the abominable conditions under which they suffered.

An attempt was made at first to congregate the refugees in one place, forbidding them to leave without the permission of the local authorities. A local government was established under the leadership of Monsieur de Saily. Complaints were registered against de Saily because of the hardness of his heart in carrying out the political organization of the group. For one thing he refused corn and provisions to the refugees landing in the second ship unless they took an oath of allegiance to the Justices of the Peace which he had appointed.

Evidently Henry Cabaniss took advantage of a relaxation made by the Council whereby the refugees were permitted to leave the settlement and live on adjoining plantations in order to earn their livelihood. This conclusion is reached because of the records of the colony containing no reference to Henry Cabaniss after his arrival. He evidently went to the plantation of the Epes family as they grew to be great friends.

The next record that we find is in 1709 when he received a grant of 200 acres in Henrico County, Virginia. We do not know how long he retained title to the land. No mention is made in his will of it and the items listed in his inventory at his death are devoid of any reference to farm implements to indicate that he lived a farmer's life. On the contrary the best conjecture is that he made his living as a goldsmith. He loved to play the violin and he had one in his possession at his death.

Henry is variously reported as having married a woman by the name of Marie. This would be the one who accompanied him to America. It is variously reported that she died sometime shortly after the arrival in this country. It is considered that he married Mary Harrison about 1710. She was of the family of the Harrison's of James River. Credence is given to this family legend in that his son, George Cabaniss, was the Captain of the Sloop Betty, owned by Colonel Benjamin Harrison. At the time George was only in his early twenties.

Henry (a) had three children: Henry Cabaniss (aa), Matthew Cabaniss (ab), and George Cabaniss (ac).

The descendants of Henry Cabaniss who lived in Rutherford County, North Carolina, are the descendants of this third son named George (ac).

Henry Cabaniss died about 1720. His undated will was probated in Prince George County, Virginia, on August 9, 1720.

Henry Cabaniss (a) was a very religious man. He gave up his fortune and friends in France because of his religious convictions. The depth of his convictions are exemplified in the beauty of his will which is set out as follows:

“In the Name of God, Amen. I, Henry Cabanis of Westover Parish in Prince George County being sick and weak in body but by the blessing of God in perfect sence mind and memory, but calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal life, and desirous to settle the small estate it hath pleased the Almighty God to bless me with in this world, do make constitute and Ordain this my Last Will and Testament, revoking and making void all other Will or wills heretofore by me made, first and principally I commend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, who gave it, begging pardon for my sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord, and my body to be buried according to the discretion of my Executor or executors hereinafter named, and as for my Worldly goods I give and bequeath in manner and form following as Viz:

Imp. I give and bequeath unto my son, Henry Cabanis, my Silver Shoe Buckles and Old Sword.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my son, Mathew Cabanis, my largest Gold ring, and my Silver hilted Sword.

Item: I give unto my Son, George Cabanis, a Gold ring.

Item: I give and bequeath the remaining part of my Estate after my just debts is paid, to be equally divided between my loveing wife and children.

Item: I do constitute and appoint my loveing wife, Mary Cabanis, and Francis Epes my whole and sole executrix and executor of this my Last Will and Testament.

Signed, sealed, and acknowledged to be the Last Will and Testament

Henry Cabanis
red wax”

(as it is contained on the other side) of Henry Cabanis in presence of us.

Drury Bolling
John Fitzgerrald
Ira Epes, Junr.”

It is true that some of the early wills followed this general form of Henry’s will. But this is not any reason to lessen the conclusion that Henry was a person of deep religious conviction.

The Marquis de la Muce was a member of the Reformed Church in France. It is quite logical that Henry was also a member of that belief.

These early French refugees to this country are generally referred to by the name of French Huguenots.

The following newspaper item was published at his death:

“Dr. James William Cabaniss died at his residence in Cleveland County, N.C., on the 28th day of September, 1862, in the 52nd year of his age. The deceased was for more than twenty years the child of affliction and for several years previous to his death confined pretty much to his room and bed, reduced almost to a skeleton by that terrible disease, Dyspepsia; all of which he bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, seldom if ever heard to mourn, but waiting God’s own appointed time. The Doctor was a true and faithful member of the M.E. Church for about 15 years before his death, giving a full assurance of his dying testimony, the religion he professed was able to carry him through the valley and shadow of death and fear no evil. The day before his death I called to see him for the last time—my old and much esteemed friend, with whom it had been my pleasure to be intimately acquainted for more than thirty years. I found him completely emaciated and worn out, scarcely able to speak, but retaining all the vigor of his intellect. He spoke of his final end with the utmost confidence in God, waiting for his appointed time. When I bade him good-by, he took me by the hand and with a firm grasp said, ‘Farewell, my old friend. God bless you; may we meet in Heaven.’ Thus has passed away from us a most excellent and good man leaving to mourn loss an affectionate and pious wife and four interesting daughters, with a large circle of relations. May the affliction be sanctified to their good.”
