

Opportunities for Deaf Canadian Women!

Would you like to become more active in your community?

Attend the Deaf Women Leadership Training Conference.

This conference would give you the opportunity to:

- Provide a series of workshops in your local community (based on the community's needs: leadership, board development, volunteerism, conflict resolution, self-advocacy, careers, etc.)
- Evaluate and assist your local organizations in providing services and/or programs
- Educate local and regional organizations in about Deaf women's issues/needs
- Assist in creating a network for Deaf women at the local and regional levels
- Help the Project coordinator in creating partnerships various organizations to respond to Deaf women's needs

Are you active in your community and would like to help women become more active in their communities?

Become a mentor at the Deaf Women Leadership Training Conference.

Being a mentor would allow you to:

- Share your knowledge about women's issues as well as in one of the areas of leadership (board development, creations of organizations, disabilities rights', etc.)
- Support and advise your fellow women attending the training conference by sharing your experiences and expertise.
- Take part in a networking group and share your resources
- Assist the conference organizers as needed

Do you like Web Design?

There is a paid opportunity for the Deaf Women Leadership Training Project.

Become a webmaster.

- Create and design Deaf Women Leadership Website
- Work with the Project Coordinator to keep information current
- Update the website as necessary
- A paid contract.

CONTACT INFO

If you are interested in applying as a participant, mentor, or webmaster, or if you would like more information, Contact:

Leanne Gallant, Project Coordinator

leanne.gallant@hotmail.com

If you would prefer to chat using VP, contact Leanne through email and a phone number will be provided.

Don't be afraid to get involved!! 😊