

SHANTELL MARTIN NEW ENTRY

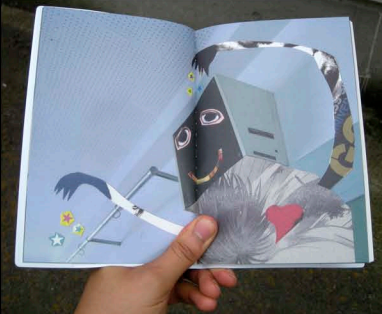

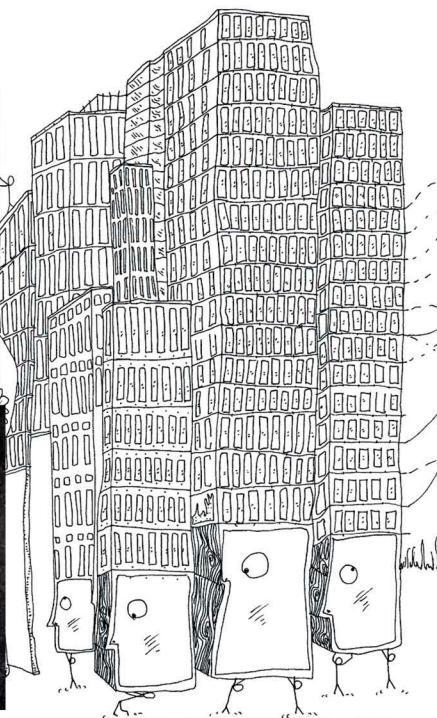

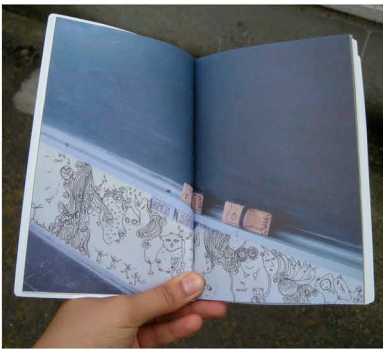

ORIGINALLY from London, Shantell Martin based herself in Tokyo a few years ago, where she found her calling for all things luminous. She dubbed her unique VJing style under PPP (Pen — Paper — Projector), drawing stylish shapes to live music in clubs under her Handycam.

Proudly low-tech and often with little more than the typical illustrator's tools, Shantell is often seen at her many Tokyo residencies — Minimal Tokyo, London Calling and at the Konen Digital Lounge — flanked by famous local and international DJs. shantellmartin.com
