

020501 FAQ

Hello all,

The last email that you received will have to be the last one that I will write for quite a while. Perhaps I will write one more when I return to the US for a visit in June, but most likely I will not write again until I am back in Europe in August. Each of these emails takes a few hours to write, research and edit and I just simply no longer have the time right now. I am faced with some big projects and finals in the upcoming weeks which mean that I must concentrate on my studies and personal emails, rather than the list.

To help everyone through this time of trial, I have written a brief FAQ you will find below.

Have a great May!

Jeff

FAQ

Q: How can I possibly make it through the week without one of your emails? They were the wind beneath my wings.

A: Although I will not be writing, I may have a trick or two up my sleeve, so hang tight.

Q: Why does it take so long to write each of these email?

A: Some are easy, but others I want to research a bit. Plus with the editing and so forth it just takes a while.

Q: Can I find back editions?

A: Yes. www.geocities.com/denmarkadventure

Q: Can I get the editions in non-PDF format.

A: No.

Q: How many people currently receive these emails?

A: I think about 90 in 10 countries.

Q: If I come to visit you will I be mentioned in your emails?

A: I have gotten a bit of grief over this one since I don't write an email for every travel destination or every guest. My new rule is that to be written up, you must eat the pickled fish with me. :) Sorry to those of you who I have left off in the past.
