

Resume of David G. Schult

Mailing Address: 1540 TP6 HN. P.O. Box 02-5229. Miami, FL 33102-5229 USA.
School Address: Escuela Internacional Sampendrana. Blvd. Mario Catarino Rvias. Colonia Gracias a Dios. San Pedro Sula. Honduras.
Home Phone: 011 504 552 94 63. Work Phone: 011 504 566 2722. E-mail: dschult@seishn.com or dgschult@yahoo.com

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, June 1989. Wittenberg University. Major: Political Science Minor: Philosophy. Springfield, Ohio. USA.
Masters of Arts, October 1993. University of Waterloo. Department of Philosophy. Waterloo, Ontario N2L 3G1 Canada
Masters of Education, June 2006. Framingham University. Division of Graduate and Continuing Education. Framingham, MA. USA

ACADEMIC AND RELATED EXPERIENCE

Philosophy, Journalism teacher and Head of Department at Escuela Internacional Sampendrana in San Pedro Sula, Honduras from August 2003 to present. During the 2003-4 school year, I taught four sections of philosophy and one of journalism. For the 2004-5 school year I continued teaching philosophy and was Head of the Social Studies Department. I am faculty advisor of the chess club and assist with the MUN. I sit on several school committees including the Strategic Planning Committee and the National Honor Society Faculty Council. I give professional development training various school computer programs including Edline, GradeQuick, ExamView Test generator and on how to avoid plagiarism using Turnitin.com,

Social Studies/Philosophy Teacher at Colegio Americano de Torreon for grades seven, ten and twelve from August 2002 to June 2003. During the 2002-2003 school year, I taught grade seven World History and World Geography. In 2004, I taught grade twelve Philosophy, Analysis of Political Text and grade ten Modern World History. I developed the curriculum for both the Philosophy and Analysis classes and was the faculty advisor for the chess club.

Social Studies Teacher at the Majuro Co-op School for grades six, seven and eight from August 2001 to June 2002. My responsibilities include home room supervision, curriculum planning and also developing programs for teaching chess and music.

Visiting Lecturer in the department of English Language and Literature at Nam Seoul University from August 2000 to August 2001 teaching freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors English classes in conversation and composition. I was responsible for all aspects of all the classes including the text book, syllabus design and testing.

ESL Publishing, Taegu, South Korea. ESL children's story writer. I develop story ideas, questions and vocabulary for various levels of stories for children. Themes include biographies, school, professions, foods, animals and many others.

Visiting Lecturer in the department of English Language and Literature at Keimyung University from March 1996 to December 1999, teaching freshmen, sophomores and juniors English conversation and composition.

Instructor at the Taegu National University of Education, Teacher Training Center. I taught Korean elementary, middle and high school teachers the basics of classroom English, giving directions and comparisons in intensive 6 week courses held during the vacations. January 1997 to December 1999.

English Advisor to the Keimyung Gazette magazine, an English language magazine published four times a year by the students of Keimyung University. September 1997 to December 1999.

English Instructor at the ECC Institute in West Taegu from January to December, 1995, teaching all levels of students from primary to adults.

Technical Writer and Researcher for Mother Earth's Ecoproducts, in 1994. I lobbied government agencies and gathered technical information for this new environmental company that imports paper products made from non- wood fibers.

Teaching Assistant in Philosophy at the University of Waterloo. I tutored students in various logic courses and a course in ethics. Academic years, 1991 to 1993

News Editor, reporter and columnist for the Wittenberg Torch. I was in charge of editing copy, proof reading, assigning stories and lay out. I also covered speeches, meetings, plus campus, state and local events. Academic years, 1987-89.

ACTIVITIES AND INTERESTS

- PADI Dive Master #196849, August 2005
- Emergency First Response – first aid and CPR certification, July 2005
- Member of the Korean Teachers of English to Students of Other Languages (KoTESOL) 1996 - 2001.
- American Red Cross Volunteer. Taegu-American School. Korea.
- Other activities include photography, scuba diving, travel, playing piano, writing and chess.

PERSONAL REFERENCES

Bill Wadden. Colegio American de Torreon. Torreon, Mexico. Phone: 52 871 721 0773. wjwadden@yahoo.ca
Alice Capelle. Majuro Co-op School. Majuro. Marshall Islands. Phone: 692 625 3144. alcapelle@yahoo.com
Michel Trottier. Yong-In Songdam College, Yongin, South Korea. Phone: 82 0335 330-9312. mntrotz@hotmail.com
Mohamad Faisal Ahmad Fadzil. F.A. Herbs, Kuala Selangor, Malaysia. Phone: 603 889 3323. hifive@tm.net.my Peter Edwards. Keimyung University, Taegu, South Korea. Phone: 82 53 620 2071. bustard@kmucc.keimyung.ac.kr