

Antigoni^o

I think Antigoni is a very strong ?

passionate woman. She's very opinionated, and kind of rebellious, a bit like ml. She does what her heart tells her to do, not some king that doesn't know anything about her feelings. She's also very independent.

Antigone¹ would have deep blue eyes, jet black hair, and very shapely lips. She has long lashes, high cheek bones, and long hair.

I think Antigone is a very strong person. She's fiery & aggressive. She doesn't care what anyone else thinks about her.

Antigone, in my mind, would have bright eyes, and long, vibrant hair. She would wear very little make-up. She would also be very pale.

My mask gives Antigone four eyes. I thought that would work, because she is so passionate, and, indeed, fiery. She is white, because it makes her eyes and mouth stand out.

Also, the paleness is more dramatic & ~~more~~ outlandish. Her lips set off her eyes and skin. The ruby red makes her look very distinctive. I didn't give her hair, because I thought my multi-colored hair would bring out her eyes.

I didn't give her curly hair, because I thought my multi-colored hair would bring out her eyes.
