

Christine Adams

Phoenix, AZ

602-980-7738
christine.adams1@snhu.edu

CREATIVE PROFESSIONAL

Web Designer and Multimedia Designer with close to five years of professional experience. Currently in the final stages of finishing a Bachelor of Arts in Graphic Design & Media Arts at Southern New Hampshire University. Areas of expertise include working with programs in the Adobe Creative Suite, audio and video, content management systems, HTML5, CSS3, animations, in addition to designing and developing print and web media. Exceptionally dedicated, detailed, respectful, reliable, and responsible.

KEY SKILLS

- Remarkable communication skills. Dedicated to understanding the vision of the client in-depth before beginning projects.
- Committed to professional and quality results. Motivated to go above and beyond the job requirements and expectations to create the best results possible.
- Proven ability to learn new skills at a fast pace. Enjoys new challenges that provide opportunities for growth and an enhanced skill set.
- Nearly five years of professional experience in the web design field. Proficient with the technical and creative aspects of web design.
- Nearly five years of professional experience in the multimedia design field. Specialties consist of working with audio and video.
- Close to two years of educational experience in graphic design. Acquired foundational knowledge and skills required to enter the graphic design field. Updated skill set includes proficiency in graphic design programs and customizing projects for the print or web world.

EDUCATION

Southern New Hampshire University Manchester, NH

Anticipated Graduation: February 2017

Bachelor of Arts in Graphic Design & Media Arts

- GPA: 3.967

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Paradise Valley Community College Phoenix, AZ

September 2013 – May 2015

Tutor

- Academic Reading Coach - assist students in learning effective time management, note-taking, college-level reading, study, and test-preparation skills.
- CIS Tutor - help students understand and improve skills in computer products, including programs in the Microsoft Office Suite and Adobe Creative Suite.
- Additional Responsibilities: give guidance to students on essays, teach ESL classes, and supervise dual-enrolled high school students.
- Assistance provided to all students: help students understand homework assignments and challenging material, while gaining confidence in their academic abilities.

International Association for Near-Death Studies Durham, North Carolina

January 2012 – Present

Web Designer

- Enhance and debug code before publishing web pages. Ensure web pages are highly functional and error-free.
- Edit and improve articles and content for website. Assisted in enhancing and publishing an article which helped raise $20,000 to create a training video.

- Prepare products to be sold on shopping cart and test checkout process to confirm functionality. Edit and enhance newsletters, journals, and audios and videos from annual conferences.
- Available to help with additional tasks, including proofreading books before publication and taking, editing, and publishing staff photographs.