

Student Learning Outcomes

Anthropology 001L / Physical Anthropology Lab.
Course Level Student Learning Outcomes	Assessment Methods
1. Discuss the workings and functions of the mammalian body.	Group discussion and presentation
2. Describe and discuss the full range of primate behaviors.	Examination and Zoo field trip report
3. Explain the role of cranial/post cranial human evolution and the role(s) of biological factors in shaping human morphology and behaviors.	Examination and project paper
4. Each student will be able to define and fully comprehend the concepts of evolution, natural selection, adaptation, fossilization, population genetics, and human variation, upon completion of this class.	Group discussion and term project paper Ancestral DNA testing project