

Lightswitch

Words and Music by David Tschoban
2000

Wondering down
Searching for courage
Feeling around
For the lightswitch
Open flame
On closing candles
Same days came
Without handles

'Cause after awhile the sunshine burns
And over time the tables turn
I feel better than I've felt in a while
My candles melted, so why don't you?

Wondering down on the street scene
I follow the clouds to this feeling
I'm shining like heat on the water
I disregard speed of Time's father

'Cause after awhile the sunshine burns
And over time the tables turn
'Cause after awhile the sunshine burns
I work overtime and the tables turn

Billion signs on the horizon
We're turning the lights and rising
Happiness hides in smaller doses
The lightswitch provides a closeness

'Cause after awhile the sunshine burns
And over time the tables turn

Hanging around, I search for courage
Looking around for the lightswitch
Open flame on closing candles
The same days came without handles

'Cause after awhile the sunshine burns
I work overtime and the tables turn
