

Mission Statement

The Delaware Valley Orchid Council (DVOC) is a non-profit organization chartered to promote the study, cultivation, hybridization and preservation of orchids.

The DVOC is organized for the specific purpose of dissemination of information and educating the general public about orchids, through the Council Membership.

The fulfillment of the educational aspects of the Council shall include, but not be limited to, the following areas of endeavor:

- The major activity is to conduct annually, a one day Speakers' Forum.
- Conduct quarterly meetings.
- Publish a newsletter on a cycle determined by vote of the membership,.
- Provide speaker information for member societies.
- Foster lines of communication among orchid organizations and other interested parties.
- Provide assistance to groups wishing to start an orchid society.

Membership

The Council consists of duly authorized representatives of Orchid Societies or Horticultural Societies and Commercial Orchid Growers of the Delaware Valley Area. Commercial Orchid Grower is defined as a recognized orchid related business entity. Membership in the Council is by vote of the paid voting Membership. For further information concerning DVOC membership, contact the president of the DVOC. (Please use the "contact us" feature on the home page)