Dear whomever this may concern,

I am interested in a coaching job at the college level. I am very knowledgeable with sports and I believe that I will be able to contribute to one of your teams.

I know how to be a leader and I can help the young athletes reach their full potential. From watching other coaches for years I have created my own strategy and I think that it will be very successful.

I'm very excited to have this opportunity and I will make the most of it. If you hire me I think that you will be pleased with the results.

I will call you to set up an interview soon.

Sincerely,

Ben Ginsparg
