Career Goals

- My career interests revolve around sports. In my recreational time I love playing and watching sports so this would be a perfect career for me. I am willing to work hard and use my knowledge of the topic to be successful.
- To learn more about sports I watch games often and see the different strategies of the coaches and their teams. Two particular sports that I watch quite often are football and basketball. Since I have seen so much of them I have learned a lot about these two games.
