

Dear ecco London members,

a very happy and successful New Year 2004 to everyone! After setting up ecco London during the last term we have finally entered the stage where we can run our first round of ecco events. Here's a roundup of our ecco events to-date:

** 13 January -- ecco board meeting open to everyone: 7 - 9 p.m. at Malet Suite (ULU, Malet Street)

** 21 January -- ecco general meeting: 7 - 9 p.m. Room 2C (ULU, Malet Street)

** 29 January -- David Still will hold a talk on wind power (location to be announced)

** 11 February -- Prof. David Pearce will talk on the concept of sustainable development (location to be announced)

Furthermore, Helen has compiled an extensive list of other events around London which is attached to this e-mail. Also keep an eye on our website (www.ecco.st/london):

Tue 13 - Institute of Contemporary Arts
"Consumer Choice - Ethics and Impact"

Mon 19 - Imperial College
"Solar Photovoltaics: a new dawn for the UK renewables industry?"

Tue 27 - LSE
"Airports - is there a limit?"
A discussion of the economic and environmental impact of aviation

See you,
Max and Janosch
