Urgent message

Due to circumstances beyond our control the Masonic Lodge is no longer able to accommodate our Monday night meetings. The only nights available were Thursday evenings. We had to book the hall for the dates that are listed below.

The executive are investigating new venues where we can have our usual Monday evening, Work Days, storage, and is wheelchair accessible.

Any information for a new venue would be appreciated. Please contact one of our executive.

If you are unable to attend the meetings due to the Thursday night change, we will refund your membership fee and hold your spot for next year.

We apologize for the inconvenience.

Fabric Sale--by Connie Fullarton

As you all know Cheryl is now settled in Germany and according to her emails all is well.

I have volunteered to do the newsletter in her absence. Cheryl will keep our web site up to date and post a copy of the newsletter.

She is a hard act to follow, but I will do my best.

If you have any suggestions, ideas, articles, advertisements, announcements etc. Please put it in the book I have provided at the meetings, email me at deveau@nbnet.nb.ca or call 472-9719

Things have got out of control and It is with great sadness that I have to part with "some" of my stash and who better to have it than my quilting friends. To start things off I am inviting any of my quild friends who are interested to give me a call and set up a time for Friday, Sept. 14th to come shop. I have an antique sewing machine and 2 "white" machines to sell, one is new and still in the box. I have a glass table that fits on my "husqvarna Lisa" machine, loads of quilting fabric, (no thimbleberries or Moda's) some drapery, denim and fabric for making uniforms. I have a beautiful oak floor model hand quilting frame . For those who can't come on Friday I plan to have a yard sale on Saturday Sept. 15. Should it rain on Saturday the yard sale will be cancelled but any guild members who would like to come to my house can give me a call. My telephone number is 472-0794--if I don't answer leave a message and I will call you back. My address is 341 Sewell Street in Devon just off of McLaren Ave.

The Genie and the Quilter

A quilter went into an antique store and found a dusty old bottle. As she was cleaning it off, a genie appeared, causing her to gasp in surprise.

"Salutations, Madame," the genie said in a raspy voice.

"Are you a genie?!" the quilter asked, her eyes alight with excitement.

"Yes, Madame."

"The kind that grants three wishes?" she inquired, still not believing her good luck.

"Yes, Madame, but I am a very old genie, and my powers are very weak." He paused to catch his breath. "I cannot grant you three wishes, but I can grant you one." He rested again and wheezed, "What is your wish?"

The quilter thought for a while and then said, "I wish for world peace."

"Madame, I am very old, and my powers are very weak. I cannot grant you so great a wish as world peace. Do not you not have another wish?"

The quilter thought again and said, "To finish all my unfinished projects!"

The genie was aghast at this potential drain on his strength. With a sigh he said, "Madame, I am a very, -very- old genie and my powers are very, -very- weak. I am unable to grant this wish, so instead I give you world peace."
