CUSTOMERS YOU WANT

Are you looking for more customers? Well, so are we, but we send the customers to you.

WE CAN HELP

There is nothing that is better than the power of word-of-mouth. So get the word out on radio. And best of all, it's only for $29.95. Sounds too good to be true, but we've been working to reach more customers since 1994. We are very good and keep cost down due to sincere volunteer efforts.

WHO WE ARE

Today's Author is aired live on Blog Talk Radio and available always online on iTunes, the largest podcast download site. The show is also on Liberated Syndication and televised on Google Video & YouTube, the largest internet video location. In addition, completed broadcasts are sent directly to authors, publishers, literary agents and others in the book publishing trade. We never stop getting the word out. We care for success.

THE FORMAT OF THE SHOW

The show "Today's Author" is much more than just a talk show. We begin with our 'comedy corner' to put the audience in a good mood. Next, we then have a lot of fun with the author. To relax, we close out the show with our musical guest. All of that is done weekly in a hour show several days during the week.

WHAT'S THE BEST PART YOU ASK?

WHAT IS THE CATCH?

There's no catch. Really, it's true. There's no commitment, no gimmick and no catch. That's why we've been able to help find ways to reach customers since 1994. Give us a try. If what you see in us does not support you, let us know. We want to do better.
