Jazz Circle—The Jazz Alive Series

The Jazz Circle is a classic four-horn jazz septet featuring the bluesy, expressive vocals of Steve Coghill. But this is no typical vocal jazz group. There's lots of blowing room for soloists, tightly arranged ensemble work, and nimble vocalese. The band features new arrangements and original lyrics to classic tunes recorded by Miles Davis, Charles Mingus, Wes Montgomery, Wayne Shorter, and Oliver Nelson.

Arsenic and Old Lace

PRESENTED BY FAIRFIELD FOOTLIGHTERS

WRITTEN BY JOSEPH KESSELRING

DIRECTED BY JAMES C. DAVIS

The play is a farce revolving around Mortimer Brewster, a theatre-hating drama critic who must deal with his crazy family and local police as he debates whether to go through with marrying the woman he loves. His family includes two spinster aunts who have taken to murdering old men by poisoning them with arsenic, a brother who believes he's Teddy Roosevelt, and a criminally murderous brother who — due to botched plastic surgery to evade the authorities — now looks like horror-film actor Boris Karloff (a self-referential joke, as Karloff originally played the part). The plot matches that of the movie adaptation, which starred Cary Grant, with a few minor changes in background.

When: February 22, 23, 24, 25 at the Community Arts Center

Call Parks and Recreation for tickets. 867-5348 $12 Adults, $10 Discount for Seniors and Students.
