TODAY'S PROGRAM

Relaxation/Journal Writing Session

..... Terri Combs

Terri has been an educator for 30 years, and has kept a daily journal for about as long. For the last few years, she has given relaxation and journal writing sessions to women's clubs, Miami University, and schools in the Greater Cincinnati area.

You're in for a special treat today.

Spring Fundraiser

It was a beautiful, elegant event, headed up by Debbie Ohlhauser. It is a tribute to the hard work and energy of all the volunteers, for such a professional presentation, for a lovely afternoon, and for such worthy causes.

Thanks to all!!

Food Pantry Items needed for May are: canned fruit, canned pie filling, pasta, spaghetti sauce, pop tarts, peanut butter, plastic grocery bags and empty egg cartons.

Once again - we will continue to donate food to the Pantry over the summer. I will be sending out a notice by e-mail, the items needed each month - and give you plenty of time to drop them by my house.

Thanks so much for all your support.

BABY FOOD DRIVE FOR MAY

The committee recommends that FFW has a baby food drive for the Open Door Pantry at our May meeting. There is a great need for baby food-dry cereal and jars. Anna Walker has volunteered to collect the food at the meeting and take it to the ODP. The callers could remind members when taking reservations. The committee felt that since we financially support the Fairfield Food Pantry, that this would be a good way to support the Open Door Pantry, located in Hamilton.

Fairfield Book Club

Meets Mon. 4/14 at 7 pm at library
(Each month, meets the Monday evening following FFW meeting)

MEMBERSHIP DUES RENEWAL TIME

Annual dues ($15 for full membership, $8 for associates) are payable now. Please remit this to Kathleen Michitti, our treasurer, before the end of April.

Also, please supply us with changes for the directory.

The Friends of the Hamilton-Fairfield Lane Libraries requests donations

The Friends of the Hamilton- Fairfield Lane Libraries request donations of gently used books, both hardcover and soft cover for their Annual Used Book Sale held the first weekend of May. Donations may be brought to either the Fairfield or Hamilton branch of the Lane Libraries. Please include your name and address so that an acknowledgement may be sent. Donations to the Friends are tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

The Annual Used Book Sale will be held at the Butler County Fairgrounds on Saturday, May 3 and Sunday, May 4.

Animal Friends Humane Society

Urgently needs foster care for puppies and kittens. With fostering, the Humane Society provides food and medical support while the pets are in your home. They advertise your fostered pet on their website and the adoption will take place through the Humane Society. This is a great way to help save lives and free up space at the Humane Society. If you are interested in helping, email Tara taraafhs@yahoo.com for a foster application presents...

The Japanese Culture Fair

Saturday, April 12th
12PM - 5PM
FREE!

Have you ever wanted to learn more about Japanese culture and customs? Instead of crossing seas to get that one-of-a-kind experience, travel down the street to the Fairfield Community Arts Center for a day-long celebration of Japanese culture and history.

Activities for the day will include:

Origami paper folding
Shodo - Japanese calligraphy
Tea tasting
Proper kimono layering
Japanese music
Kendo - Japanese fencing and much more!

The day's festivities will culminate with the EnterAct Family Series presentation of A Thousand Cranes

The Art Center's goal in partnering with the Japan America Society is to create a unique experience that will expand knowledge of Japanese culture and deepen participants' understanding of the harmony and creativity integrated throughout Japan's historic culture

This is one of many activities at Fairfield Community Arts Center. Visit their website www.fairfield-city.org
