Fairfield Women

Today's Program.....

Today, we are delighted to once again have the fabulous Fairfield Choraliers performing for us. We will also be presenting the checks to our Community Action recipients and installing our new officers.

Today's Raffle Basket is a beautiful hanging basket and garden tools donated by Kim Hunker

Our Greeters today are; Betty Schneider & Nancy Kemper and Rev. Beckstrom will provide the invocation. Thank you ladies and gentleman!

Ladies,

Welcome to our last meeting of the year and the passing of the gavel to Sheryl Jones and Debbie Pennington. This has been an exciting year for us as co-presidents! We now have the highest number of members (122)! We have worked very hard for two very successful fund raising events and today we will be presenting checks that total a record high for our organization.

We want to thank our board for all their time and talents. We could have not done it without your support! Thank you for all your dedication to Fairfield Women. We are so proud and honored to have served as co-presidents.

Donna Schwab and Laura Weinberger

Written by Neil Simon

Directed by Joan Kirsch

America's premier comic playwright delights audiences with this out-and-out funny offering. Four couples are at the townhouse of a deputy New York City mayor and his wife to celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary. However, the happy occasion soon sours when the deputy mayor shoots himself in the head (never fear, it's only a flesh wound) and his wife is missing. His lawyer, a guest at the party, decides it's time for a cover-up. But the lies get progressively more difficult to sustain as the other guests arrive and nobody can remember who has been told what about whom. The cover-up unravels in a storm of slamming doors and hilarity. "Light, frothy and fun." - N.Y. Post. $12 Adults; $10 Discount
