

*The fourth batch is many things.
But first it is a storehouse of fresh ideas and half tested mettle.*

*Whoever loves
fun and laughter
will love a third
batcher.*

The second batch spirit expresses itself in many ways. . . in their excellence in sports and versatility

SOME THINGS WILL NEVER PASS

Some things will never pass, some things will grow richer with the unfolding of the years. . .

*the big and little events ,
and the countless
other things. . .*

things that refuse to be forgotten because they bring a special kind of joy and poignance with each recollection . . .

the evening of the induction ceremonies. . . of health drinking nights, card games, songs and laughter with bright lights and music . . .

the fun-filled parties and practicums which exposed us to actual problems . . .

*the donut sales and sportsfest muscle ails . . . the glow and imbecility and sweetness and denials of young love
. . . the unspeakable triumph of still emerging a scholar after 4 years . . .
all these and many more will remain . . . for these things will never pass.*
