DOWN ON LONELY STREET

These blue jeans have seen better days,
So have the shoes on my feet.

(Repeat)

But you don't have to look too good,
When you live on Lonely Street.

People pass you by,
They see you walkin' that beat.

(Repeat)

You know every crack in the sidewalk,
Just another day on Lonely Street.

Makes no difference where ever you go,
If you look around you're gonna' meet.
Another poor soul waistin' their life,
Down on Lonely Street.

Some get tired,
And quit cause' they can't stand the heat.

(Repeat)

Life aint' easy these days,
When you're livin' on Lonely Street.
