HELLO TROUBLE

VERSE

Hello trouble, would you mind if I sat down
Would it bother you if I just hung around
I've got to talk to you before I'm homeward bound
So move on over trouble while I sit down

VERSE

I went out last night, I drove into town
When I got home there was no one around
My wife just up and left me for the guy next door
So if you've got some time, man I could tell you more

CHORUS

Well hello trouble would you mind if I sat down
Would it bother you if I just hung around
I've got to talk to you before I'm homeward bound
So move on over trouble while I sit down

VERSE

The bank just took my car, my payment's overdue
Please tell me trouble if I'm disturbing you
And I got a call today from the lawyers down the hall
So Mr. trouble are you hearing me at all

REPEAT CHORUS

Hello trouble
Make some room for me
Oh can't you see
My life's a mess
Hello trouble
