LEAVIN' HERE TODAY

c 1989 by J. JONES, R. LYLE, & S.L. MARLER

VERSE 1: I'm out here on the highway in the rain, rain, rain Wonderin' what I got myself into Wishin' I had thought to hop a train, train, train
Wishin' I'd forget about you

VERSE 2: You didn't even wake me up to lie, lie, lie
When you came sneakin' in with the dawn
But you missed your one chance to say goodbye, bye, bye
Honey, when you get up, I'll be gone

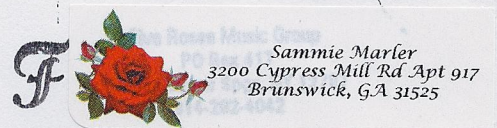

CHORUS

Cause I'm leavin' here today, I don't need you anyway
All you ever did was waste my time
Your act was gettin' old, now I'm headin' down the road
So adios, I'm leavin' here today

VERSE 3: Every step I take it makes me strong, strong, strong
I'm puttin' miles behind me one by one
Cause I know I was right and you were wrong, wrong, wrong -
And babe, I know that I was born to run

VERSE 4: I don't claim to own a crystal ball, ball, ball
But maybe one fine day, we'll meet again
I'll go struttin' by you walkin' tall, tall, tall
Once again, I'll vanish in the wind
