MY BETTER HALF AIN'T MY BETTER HALF NO MORE

VERSE

I knew this day would come around
But I didn't want to face the fact
That you won't be livin' in this house
In this house no more
No you ain't ever comin' back

VERSE

I guess that I'm glad that it happened just this way
It really couldn't have come at a better time
'Cause I can't pay the rent
The money's all been spent
On a girl that works at the five and dime

CHORUS

So now my better half ain't my better half no more
She found herself somebody else to even up the score
It's nice when people ask me, what am I happy for It's 'cause my better half ain't my better half no more

BREAK

REPEAT CHORUS

VERSE

You might have everything I owned, but you ain't got my pride
I've got my arms around her now, and she's right here by my side
I have all that I ever wanted, and a whole lot more
Since my better half ain't my better half no more
