Board of Directors Meeting Melrose November 20, 2004

After a lengthy discussion there was an unanimous vote to establish a Florida Chapter policy effective immediately. While operating boats intended for racing, and other certain high performance boats, helmets and life jackets will be worn. Effective Jan. 1 2005, ignition kill switches must be installed and operable. In addition the use of exhaust stacks are banned unless specifically approved by the meet host. The Board of Directors' intention was in no way meant to impede the fun or thrill of performance craft, but is intended to address the concerns of our
