

About Sisters in Crime:

Sisters in Crime is an organization of mystery book professionals and mystery enthusiasts. The purpose of Sisters in Crime is “to combat discrimination against women in the mystery field, educate publishers and the general public as to inequalities in the treatment of female authors, and raise the level of awareness of their contribution to the field.”

Membership is open to men and women worldwide who have a special interest in mystery writing and in the purpose of Sisters in Crime.