

Medication and personal care policy

No person may administer any medication (whether prescription or non-prescription) to any other person whilst working or volunteering or acting as a representative for Flight horizons. Any person who is found to have done so may be subject to the disciplinary procedure.

No person may administer personal care (including assistance with personal hygiene) to any other person whilst working or volunteering or acting as a representative for Flight horizons (except in the incidence of a first aider administering first aid as qualified). Any person who is found to have done so may be subject to the disciplinary procedure.
