

No smoking policy

Flight horizons recognizes the importance of health and safety within its working environment. The organisation operates a no smoking policy. On those premises and property owned, rented and used by Flight horizons smoking is forbidden. If you are working on an employed or voluntary basis on behalf of Flight horizons smoking is not permitted unless you leave the environment in which the related activity is based. Employed staff will not be permitted any breaks other than their normal allocated breaks for smoking purposes. Any potential employee should take this policy into account before taking up employment with flight horizons. Any person in breach of this policy may be subject to the disciplinary procedure.
